

ALCL CADA

ILR #299401 - Female

DOB 6/18/2024

MSF Pinnacle x CTF Renegade's Amore

Consigned by Log Cabin Llamas

ALCL Cada is going to be a tough one to see go. Ulin and I are trying to keep a smaller breeding herd, which is the only reason we are willing to part with this striking female. If her gorgeous black and white paint job doesn't catch your eye, her stellar conformation and extreme size will. In a limited showing, Cada has been Grand or Reserve Grand Champion almost every time she has left the farm, including being a part of the National Champion Get of Sire in 2025. Her pedigree is stacked with legends, both new and old. When MSF, GNLC, WLK, CTF, BAL, and FFF are combined into one package, you expect excellence. We are excited to see who is paying attention on sale day and brings home this special female.
